Another 2-legged animal story: At 11:20 am May 6, 1982, a long way out on Old Santa Fe Trail, Kenny Goering was running. A pick-up which had passed her slowly was stopped by the side of the road. Alerted, she memorized the license number. Soon after, a 25-yr. old anglo man grabbed her from behind. Kenny, in turn, turned and grabbed him by the neck and "Killer" Kenny kicked him. He ran off but that was not all...Kenny chased him, throwing rocks! She reported the incident to the Sheriff and said she was very impressed with their follow-up. Bravo, Kenny!

HAPPY RUNNING!
