The Santa Fe Striders September meeting will be held on Tuesday, the 21st in the basement of the Alpine Sports Bldg. at 7:30 p.m. Peyton Dew, runner and karate brown belt, will present a program of self-defense for runners, including an exchange of ideas and discussion period. (Men, tell us how you view the subject, too!). Also on the agenda for the meeting is the Fowl Day Run (second annual). It's scheduled for Saturday, Nov. 20, and we would like interested volunteers to make themselves known. This run promises to be a fun and unusual Fall highlight.

The "Remember the Old Santa Fe Trail Run" run, held on Labor Day, was a delightful success. 290 runners appeared, and only positive comments were heard. Times were accurate, and the stoneware prizes made by Lois Stouffer (sp?) were beautiful. Thanks one and all for a good job.
