STRIDERS NEWS

Renew/Activate Your 2009 Membership Today - The Club continues to encourage interested runners to join us with a new or renewed club membership for 2009. Please print, sign, and mail in the attached membership waiver along with the annual $15 fee to activate or renew your membership. Better yet, stop by for a Tues, Thurs, or Sunday workout and drop it off in person. Forms can also be downloaded from the Striders website. Membership includes discounts in Striders race events, as well as a membership card redeemable for discounts with our wonderful sponsors: The Running Hub and The Santa Fe Baking Company.

Striders membership for 2008 was approximately 96 area runners, up from 72 in 2007. In addition to financing club race events and functions, membership dues and race fees are also channeled toward donations to local running organizations. Local recipients of Club donations last year included Wings of America, and Girls on the Run.

STRIDERS ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Tuesday evening track workouts have returned! Mike is now sending out workouts to those on the group training e-mail list – workouts begin at 6pm Tuesdays at the Santa Fe High track.
- Planning for the 31st Annual Striders' Santa Fe Run Around 10K, 5K, and Kids K is in the intermediate stages. If you'd like to volunteer, sponsor, or otherwise be involved in this year's race please contact Jim Owens at Owens_Jim@msn.com.
- John and our friends at The Running Hub are continuing their promotion to pick-up the annual fee for a new or renewed Striders Membership for any walk-ins with purchases of $100 or more until the end of this month. Quit your foot-dragging and score your complimentary membership with a new pair of shoes and some spring gear from the Hub.
- For the Running/Triathlon Community: Evolve, the spinning/fitness studio adjacent to The Running Hub, has put together a spinning class prior to the regular Thursday night runs hosted by The Santa Fe Striders. The class will begin at 5:30 pm and is intended to be used as an intense spinning session prior to the run to create a "brick" effect. Evolve offers $65 unlimited monthly use or a $60 card with 10 punches to be used over a 3 month period. The class is experimental at this time, but they are committed to running it through June for those interested in prepping for the Atomic Man Duathlon or the Santa Fe and Jay Benson Triathlons. Contact Renee Bartlett (rareforms01@yahoo.com) at Evolve for more information.

- Girls on the Run are in need of volunteer women coaches at Gonzales and Agua Fria elementary schools. You don't need to be a fast runner – what's needed is your ability to share your passion for wellness. The positions require a commitment for part of one or two days a week for ten weeks. Coaching is inspiring – give it a try. For information look to www.girlsontherun.org on the net, or email Kristen Edwards at kristinedwards@comcast.net.

UPCOMING

- Striders member Gina Ortiz is gearing up for her first marathon in Hilo, Hawaii, March 21st. She's showing good form and we wish her the best. Clean pair of heels Gina!
- Striders member Max Mujinya will be on the starting line of this year's 113th running of the Boston Marathon. Best of luck Max, we know you haven't skimped on your training.
- Notices for this spring's marathons and trail runs in the Jemez Mountains (May) and Valle Caldera (June) are beginning to trickle out. If you're looking for an upcoming long-run these are two great local events to plan for. For further information contact Kevin at kvnbrennan@hotmail.com.
- Just a reminder that one of the nation's top marathons takes place on March 29 right here in New Mexico: The 20th Bataan Memorial Death March, <http://www.bataanmarch.com/>. It's a tough and beautiful course (lots of trail, some paved), but also an event in memory of all that have served in our nation's military. In attendance are actual survivors of Bataan. If anyone is interested in carpooling, Max is registered and planning on running - driving down to Las Cruces on Friday night and returning Sunday afternoon. Send us an email and we'll put you in touch with him. A recap and first-person account of last year's race can be found here.

FINISHERS

- Results of the Striders' annual Corrida de los Locos 5M held this year on the Marty Chavez links are now up on the website. The overall and men's champion this year was Justin Nyberg in a quick (31:08.72). The women's overall championship was won by Gina Ortiz (40:37.09). Richard Curry deserves special recognition for directing another great Corrida. Hasta el año próximo, locos.
- The Striders sent a fleet of runners to compete at this year's Napa Valley Marathon in California (March 1st). Finishers included Mariann Johnston – 3:49:58 (BQ); Jim Owens – 3:45:33 (BQ); Mariam Browne – 3:44:28 (BQ); Wren Abbott – 3:44:01 (23m PR); Max Mujinya – 3:07:20 (BQ); and Eric Peters – 3:02:12 (BQ). Several Boston qualifying times in the bunch. We're told it was cold and a bit rainy this year yet gorgeous by all accounts. Max has uploaded a few pre-race photos here.

- The Striders had two of its members to compete in last month's Austin Half Marathon and Marathon to show all those Texans how it's done. Jim Owens finished in 1:54:41; Kevin Brennan in 2:57:57 (BQ).
- Results of the 2nd annual Snow Shoe Classic held up on Hyde Park's Norski Trails are now up on the website. Shanna Winnegar was the overall and women's champion in the 5K race (35:59.91); Jody LeFevere claimed the men's 5K championship (39:18.08). Bill Blankenship ran to the 10K overall title (59:27.17); and Therese Trujillo was the 10K women's champion (1:12:26.41). We had 59 entries for this year's race, up from approx. 40 last year. Kris Kern, Kris Peterson, and Jim Owens deserve appreciation for another well run event. We'd also like to recognize our race sponsor REI who graciously provided rental snowshoes for some of our runners and goodies for our after-race raffle.

MEMBER CONTRIBUTION

Time Out of Mind (with due respect to Bob Dylan)

On February 22nd I ran the Ft. Lauderdale A1A Marathon with my daughter, Kisa; we finished in 4:16 and 4:17, respectively. Yet, this marathon was not about time.. At the famous Ft. Lauderdale intersection of A1A and Las Olas, a resident male who claimed to be a city council member, said to us, "Ft. Lauderdale is the place where the earth, the sky, and the water all meet as one. Just look at it out there." I turned to see where the sand, the ocean, and the sky were meeting, and where in one's eyes and mind there might be no time.

A few months before the marathon I suggested to Kisa, who is 19, that she might be too young to run a 26.2 mile race. "Richard, I'm going to run the marathon," she said. It would be her first.

"Okay," I said. So I began to train and scheduled my flight to south Florida.

Writer and philosopher Jose Ortega y Gasset once wrote, "It is not desire that leads to knowledge, but necessity." As runners we might want to take heed to Ortega y Gasset's words. Where is it we gain our knowledge in running? Is it a need for a better time? Is it our desire to complete the perfect race? Is it our knowing we captured some euphoric hour, minute, or second? Perhaps these are answered in the steps along the way. Afterall, no one else runs in our shoes.

For 26.2 miles I ran side by side with a person I love and admire. At 4:16 she finished second in her age group. It is something I never did before, yet something I did for the ages. I will take this race to my death. Maybe there in that final hour or minute or second I will picture time out of mind. Who knows? But I hope to trust that those being born and living and for those who are running there will be some place in the world where the earth and the water and the sky still meet.

--Richard Curry
