Striders in the News

(Contact Richard or Jim with contributions)

- Richard Curry completed his 20th marathon at Marathon of the Palm Beaches on Dec. 2nd; he finished in 3:30.58, which qualifies him for the 2009 Boston Marathon. The fact that I have run 20 marathons doesn't have much significance; however, it does fill up a section of this newsletter. I've never been a newsletter editor, so when I saw this empty space I had to fill it with something; therefore, to avoid me printing self-acclaimed snippets in the future, please submit your Striders in the News contributions for the March issue.

December Striders Meeting

Several items from this meeting may be of interest to members:

- Jim Owen and Jim Westmoreland will continue to serve as president and vice president
  - Willie Richardson was elected treasurer
  - Richard Curry was selected to become editor of Milemarkers
  - Diana Hardy and Andy Shreve were voted Striders of the Year (SOTY) for their services
  - A Santa Fe marathon is in the works for September 2008; please bring any course ideas to the monthly meeting!
- Speaking of first marathons, read the Striders Contribution below.

Striders Contribution

Tucson Marathon, first marathon, a recollection by Steve Rogers

Up before the sun banana, cliff bar, coffee nervous bus ride in the dark tentative conversation with seat mate out of the bus into the dark start line bathed in spot light loud rock and roll music blasting from speakers moist desert air with a slight breeze garbage bags strolling in and out of the light jog up the dirt road beyond the lights eyes adjust to dark, other joggers warming up music and lights behind, mass of stars and dark ahead sky starting to lighten, but sun not up music still loud, we all line up, garbage bags and sweat shirts fly into the trees instructions, shifting feet, hands on wrists, go, a thousand beeps crunch, crunch, crunch, crunch, crunch still no sun, but more light
crunch, crunch, crunch, crunch, crunch
down the hill, up the hill, veer right
crunch, crunch, crunch, crunch, crunch
don't go too fast, long way to go crunch, crunch, quiet, quiet, faint swish-swish asphalt underfoot, sun is coming up swish, swish, swish, swish a town, a highway, who's around same people passing on the way down I pass on the way up
Up and down, up and down Mile 4 – family of four (not mine) cheering
Mile 8 – family of four cheering
Mile 12 – family of four cheering
Mile 16 – family of four cheering
Mile 20 – family of four cheering
Mile 21 shouldn't have stopped, knee doesn't bend Mile 22 – knee bends again
Mile 24 – family of four cheering Mile 25 uphill? Where did that come from?
Top of the hill – my son, pick up the pace Final stretch – keep up the pace Finish line, done, medal, no more chip, what was my time?
food, drink, great food, great drink, lots of food, lots of drink, even chocolate Lunch at Red Lobster with son Family of four with daughter / sister / runner walk in Thank you family of four (not mine) nice to meet you daughter / sister / runner, did you hit your time? You hit my time
Shower
Airplane
What a day !!
